WHAT IS KEHILAT CHAVERIM?

Kehilat Chaverim

is a cooperative Jewish community of about 80 households in the Greater Hartford, Connecticut area, established in 1978, to find new ways of exploring & expressing Jewish identity.

Its purpose is to meet the cultural, religious, educational, social and life-cycle needs of its members.

Once a week Sunday School, Bar/Bat Mitzvah program, monthly Shabbat services, adult cultural education, community festivals and Seders, and strong social action and community outreach programs.

Kehilat Chaverim respects the diversity of American Judaism; Offering a welcoming atmosphere for families, individuals, mixed marriages & relationships, and alternative lifestyles. We have no rabbi or building and the members organize and run all of our own programs through a cooperative atmosphere.

Kehilat Chaverim Sunday School

Kehilat Chaverim means “gathering of friends.”

Founded in 1978, we are a Jewish community that takes a parent-directed, cooperative approach to Jewish education. Our curriculum is steeped in culture and tradition but not defined by it.

At Kehilat Chaverim your child will learn about Jewish history, holidays and culture. With a strong emphasis placed on personal ethics and social justice; allowing the students a variety of ways to explore and express their Jewish identity.

We present the Bible as history rather than as dictated law; and emphasize a respect for the diversity of Jews in America and worldwide.
